

CITY OF Federal Way

ARTS COMMISSION

NOTICE OF VACANCY

The City Council is accepting applications to serve on the Arts Commission. The Arts Commission is an advisory board to the City Council on matters relating to fine, cultural and performing arts. With the support of City staff, the Commission works to further the public's awareness and interests in art and the cultural heritage of the City. To the extent practicable, appointments shall reflect a balance of interests in fine and performing arts and preservation of cultural heritage.

The Commission is comprised of nine (9) voting members and up to three (3) alternate members who are appointed by the City Council. Members serve three (3) year terms without compensation and must be residents of Federal Way. The Commission meets the first Thursday of each month at 7:30 a.m. at the Federal Way Community Center.
