

International Trade and Relations

Centered on Global Opportunity

The City of Federal Way, Washington is ideally situated between two major cities, Seattle to the north and Tacoma to the south. The City's exemplary location allows international businesses to cultivate partnerships that encourage further international trade and relations, making it ideal for any company's expansion or initial location.

In the infographic below, find out the advantages of choosing Federal Way for your business.

Consumer Market

Centrally located in a consumer market of over 9 million, from Vancouver BC to Portland, Oregon.

Marine Facilities

Located 30 minutes from two major international marine facilities, the Port of Tacoma and the Port of Seattle.

International Travel

Federal Way is equidistant in travel time to both London and Tokyo, and with a location of 20 minutes outside of SeaTac International Airport, travel becomes that much easier.

Low Taxes

The City has no unitary tax, local B&O, gross receipts, income tax, or state income tax.

Diverse Market

Federal Way is an ethnically diverse community where residents speak over 100 languages.

Proximity to Interstate

Federal Way is located just off of Interstate 5, the 277 mile highway which travels from Oregon to Canada.